

OVERVIEW STATEMENT ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

The Board is supportive of the adoption of principles and best practices as enshrined in the Malaysian Code on Corporate Governance throughout the Group, for the protection and enhancement of stakeholders' value and the performance of the Group.

The Board is pleased to disclose below the manners in which it has applied the principles of good corporate governance and considered that it had complied with the best practices provisions except as stated otherwise.

(A) BOARD LEADERSHIP AND EFFECTIVENESS

Composition of the Board

The present size and composition of the Board is optimum and well balanced. As presently constituted, the Board has the stability, continuity and commitment as well as capacity to discharge its responsibilities effectively.

The Board is of the opinion that the presence of the existing Independent Directors, though not forming half of the Board's composition, amply provides the element of independence in the Board's composition and conduct, giving the assurance that there is balance of power and authority on the Board. The Board will review its composition from time to time to ensure that such level of independence is not in any way compromised.

Profile of the Board members is as set out on pages 14 to 18 of this Annual Report.

Principal Responsibility of the Board

The Board is entrusted with the stewardship role of the Group. It is responsible for providing oversight of the Group's strategic direction, overseeing the Group's business operations, as well as identifying key risk factors that have significant impact on the Group's operations and performance. In achieving these goals, the Board performs regular reviews over the risk management and internal control system to ensure its integrity and adequacy in providing reasonable assurance of risk mitigation.

The principal responsibilities of the Board are generally summarised as follows:

- review and adopt the overall strategic plans and programmes for the Company and Group;
- establish such committees, policies and procedures to effectively discharge the Board's roles and responsibilities;
- ensure the Company has appropriate corporate governance structures in place including standards of ethical behaviour and promoting a culture of corporate responsibility;
- promote better investor relations and shareholder communications;
- review the adequacy and the integrity of the management information and internal controls systems of the Company and Group; and
- identify principal risks and ensure implementation of a proper risk management system to manage such risks.

Board Independence and Effectiveness

The Board is entrusted for the oversight and overall management of the business affairs of the Company. The Board is responsible for determining all major policies, reviewing the system of internal control, ensuring that effective strategies and management are in place, for assessing the performance of the Company and its management team.

The Board has established clear functions reserved for the Board and those delegated to the management. The Board deliberates business plan and approves the performance targets and the goals of the business to be met by the Company and subsidiary companies.

Managing Director is responsible for the day-to-day business operations of the Group while the Independent Non-Executive Directors provide scrutiny and unbiased and independent views, advice and judgement to decisions and proposals of the Managing Director. The Board collectively is responsible for the effective implementation and monitoring of the Group's strategic plans.

The Independent Non-Executive Directors do not involve in the day-to-day management of the Group's business operations. Therefore, the Independent Non-Executive Directors remain free from conflict of interest and thus enable them to carry out their duties as independent directors effectively. They provide impartial views and insight to the Managing Director in matters relating to financial management, corporate governance, risk management and internal control. Strategies proposed by the Managing Director are deliberated from both quantitative and qualitative aspects, taking into account the interest of various stakeholders as well as the impact of risk factors that exist in the operating environment. Presence of the Independent Directors complements the Board by ensuring there is an effective check and balance in the functioning of the Board.

SEPARATION OF THE POSITIONS OF THE CHAIRMAN AND THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

The position of Chairman and the Managing Director are held by different individuals. There is a division of responsibility between the Chairman who is leading the Board in the oversight of management and Managing Director, who responsible for managing the overall business and day to day operations of the Company to ensure that there is a balance of power and authority, promotion of accountability and facilitation of division of responsibilities between them.

The key duties and responsibilities of the Chairman are to provide leadership to the Board, instill good corporate governance practices, chairing the meetings of the Board and shareholders, ensuring that the Board fully discharges its responsibilities and acting as liaison person between the Board and the management.

Board Charter and Code of Conduct

The Board has formally adopted a Board Charter, which provides guidance to the Board in the fulfilment of its roles, duties and responsibilities which are in line with the principles of good corporate governance. The Board Charter provides guidance for Directors and Management on the responsibilities of the Boards, its Committees and requirements of Directors and it is subject to periodical review to ensure consistency with the Board's strategic intent as well as relevant standards of corporate governance.

The Board is mindful of the importance of the establishment of clear roles and responsibilities in discharging its fiduciary and leadership functions as recommended by the Code including those reserved for the Board's approval and those which the Board may delegate to the Board Committees, the Executive Director and the Management. There is a clear division of responsibilities between the Chairman and the Executive Director.

The Board is also committed to conducting business in accordance with the highest standards of business ethics and complying with applicable laws, rules and regulations. The Code of Conduct and Ethics provide guidance for Directors regarding ethical and behavioural considerations and/or actions as they address their duties and obligations during their appointment.

Board reviewed the Board Charter and Code of Conduct in July 2022 and made available for reference in Company's website, www.sdb.com.my.

OVERVIEW STATEMENT ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Qualified and Competent Company Secretaries

The Board is well supported by qualified and competent Company Secretaries on matters relating to the Company's policies and procedures that require compliance to applicable rules, regulations and the Code.

The Company Secretaries of the Company are experienced, play an important role in advising the Board on issues relating to corporate compliance with the relevant laws, rules, procedures and regulations affecting the Board and the Group, as well as best practices of governance. The Directors have ready and unrestricted access to the advice and services of the Company Secretaries. The Board is regularly kept up to date on and apprised of any regulations and guidelines.

The Company Secretaries also safeguard all statutory books and records of the Company and maintain the statutory registers of the Company. Company Secretaries also ensure all Board meetings are properly convened, and that accurate and proper records of the proceedings and resolutions passed are recorded.

Board Meeting and Supply of Information to the Board

The Board meets regularly, at least once in every quarter, to review the Group's operations and to approve the quarterly reports and annual financial statements. During the financial year, the Board met on four (4) occasions where it deliberated upon and considered a variety of matters mainly to review the Group's operations and the quarterly and annual financial statements.

Ms Teh Lip Pink	4/4
Puan Selma Enolil binti Mustapha Khalil	4/4
Dato' Christopher Chan Choun Sien	4/4

The Board meets to review and discuss matters specifically reserved to itself for decision to ascertain the direction and control of the Group. Key matters tabled at Board meetings include review and adoption of the Group's quarterly and year-end financial results, business plan, annual budget, risk management, assets acquisition and disposal, approval of major capital expenditure projects and consideration of significant financial matters, Group policies and delegated authority limits.

All Directors are provided with agenda and set of Board papers issued prior to Board meetings to allow reasonable time for the Board members to obtain further explanations or clarification, where necessary and to make an informed decision. Senior management is invited to attend these meetings to explain and clarify matters being tabled. The Board has direct access to senior management staff to obtain complete and unimpeded information to assist them in discharging their duties. The proceedings of all board meetings are recorded by the Company Secretary and filed properly in the minute's book of the Company upon confirmation by the Board.

In addition, all Directors have access to the advice and services of the Company Secretary who is a qualified professional with the required experience to advise the Board. When necessary, Directors may also obtain independent professional advice at the Company's expense in furtherance of their duties.

Directors' Training

The Board recognises the needs to attend training to enable them to discharge their duties effectively. The training needs of each Director is assessed and proposed by the individual director.

Newly appointed Director(s) will be provided with a brief induction of the Group for an insight of the Group's business operation and financial performance. In addition, the Board is updated by the Company Secretaries from time to time on changes of statutory requirements such as amendments to Main Market Listing Requirements.

During the financial year and as at the date of the issuance of this Annual Report, the Directors have attended briefing pertaining to the Directors' Responsibility towards Tax Authority conducted by Dr Chow Leong Choon on 21 April 2022.

Board Committees

The Board has set up five Board Committees, i.e. Investment, Audit, Nominating, Remuneration Committees and Risk Management and Sustainability Committee to delegate specific powers and responsibilities to support the role of the Board to provide assurance and accountability to its shareholders, all of which have their own terms of reference.

The Committees have been granted with full authority to investigate any matter within their scope of responsibility and to obtain satisfactory information as it may require from directors and/or employees of the Group. In the event where independent professional advice are needed to discharge their duties, the Committees are entitled to engage external professionals and/or consultants at the cost of the Group after due consultation with the Board.

The Investment Committee was established on 23 August 2001 with the responsibilities of approving Group acquisition and disposals of investment up to RM15 million and manage risk of the Group in order to maximise return to the shareholders.

Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee was established to ensure that the Board has an appropriate balance, size and the required mix of skills, experience and core competencies to govern the organization towards achieving its intended goals and objectives. The Nominating Committee shall propose new candidates for the Board and assess Directors on an on-going basis.

The Terms of Reference of the Nominating Committee can be viewed at the Company's website at www.sdb.com.my.

The summary functions of the Nominating Committee are as follows:

- To recommend candidates for all directorships.
- To recommend appointments to the Board Committees.
- To annually review the required mix of skills and experience and other qualities, including core competencies that the Non-Executive Directors should bring to the Board.
- To implement a process, to be carried out annually for assessing the effectiveness of the Board as a whole, the committees of the Board and for assessing the contribution of each individual Director.

The Nominating Committee will review and assess the mix of skills expertise, composition, size and experience of the Board directors. The Nomination Committee undertakes annual assessment to evaluate the performance of each individual Director, the effectiveness of the Board and the Board Committees. The effectiveness of the Board and Board Committees are assessed in the areas of board structure/mix, decision making and boardroom participation and activities, meeting administration and conducts, skill and competencies and role and responsibilities whilst the performance of the individual Directors are assessed in the areas of contribution and interaction with peer, quality of the input of the Director, understanding of role, etc.

During the financial year, the Nominating Committee has reviewed the necessity for the Company to re-organise the composition of Board of Directors to ensure that the calibre, credibility and necessary skills and experience required were always in place to have an effective Board and enable the Board to be better equipped to respond to challenges that might arise and deliver value to the Company.

The Nominating Committee considers that the current mix of skills and experience of the Board are sufficient for the discharge of its duties and responsibilities effectively.

OVERVIEW STATEMENT ON CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Board Nominating Process

The Nominating Committee is responsible to identify candidate to the Board if there is vacancy arise from resignation, retirement or any other reasons or if there is a need to appoint additional director with the required skill or profession to the Board in order to close the competency gap in the Board identified by the Committee. The potential candidate may be proposed by existing director, senior management staff, shareholder or third party referrals.

Upon receiving of the proposal, the Committee is responsible to conduct assessment and evaluation on the proposed candidate.

The Board does not set specific criteria for the assessment and selection of director candidate. However, the consideration would be taken on the need to meet the regulatory requirement such as Companies Act, 2016 and Main Market Listing Requirements. The Committee selection of the director candidate is generally based on the achievement in the candidate personal career, integrity, wisdom, ability to make independent and analytical inquiries, ability to work as a team to support the Board, possession of the required skill, qualification and expertise that would add further value to the Board, understanding of the business environment and the willingness to devote adequate time and commitment to attend to the duties/functions of the Board.

The assessment/evaluation process may include, at the Committee's discretion, reviewing of the candidate resume, curriculum vitae and other biographical information, confirming the candidate's qualifications and conducting legal and other background searches as well as formal or informal interview at the Committee's discretion.

Upon completion of the assessment and evaluation of the proposed candidate, the Committee would make its recommendation to the Board. Based on the recommendation of the Committee, the Board would evaluate and decide on the appointment of the proposed candidate.

The Chairman of the Board would then make an invitation or offer to the proposed/potential candidate to join the Board as a director. With the acceptance of the offer/invitation, the candidate would be appointed as director of the Company.

Annual Assessment of Existing Directors and Board Committees

An assessment of the Board's performance is carried out for the year under review, including the Independent Directors' performance and role of chairman.

The assessment criteria include of Board structure, operation and interaction, dynamics and functioning, governance and risk management.

The Board is satisfied with the existing number and composition of its members and is of the view that with the current mix of skills, knowledge, experience and strengths, the Board is able to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.

Assessment of Independent Directors

The existing independent directors are independent from management and free from any business or other relationships which may interfere with the exercise of their independent judgement. The Board has undertaken an annual assessment on the Independent Directors via disclosed interests and the criteria of "independence" as prescribed under Chapter 1 of the MMLR.

Re-election

In accordance with the Company's Constitution, all Directors shall retire from office at least once in each three years and a retiring Director is eligible for re-election and the election of each Director is voted on separately. This re-election process provides an opportunity for the shareholders to renew their mandates. In order to assist the shareholders in their decision, sufficient information such as personal profiles, meeting attendance and their shareholdings in the Company for each Director is furnished in the Annual Report.

The Constitution further provides that all newly appointed Directors shall retire from office but shall be eligible for re-election in the next Annual General Meeting subsequent to their appointment.

Board Diversity Policy

The Board Diversity Policy adopted by the Company recognises the benefits of having a diverse Board as an important element in supporting the attainment of the Group's strategic objectives and maintaining the Group's competitive advantage. The Group believes that a diverse Board will leverage differences in thoughts, perspectives, knowledge, skill, age, ethnicity, race and gender which will ensure that the Group remains current and retains its competitive advantage.

The Group practices the selection of suitable candidates as new Board members based on the candidates' competency, knowledge, skills, experience, character, time commitment and other qualities in meeting the needs of the Group. The ultimate decision will be based on merit and contribution that the selected candidates could bring to the Board. The Group is in support of and adopts the policy of non-discrimination on the basis of gender, age, race and religion.

Despite no specific targets being set in relation to boardroom gender diversity, the Board is committed to improving boardroom diversity to create a diverse Board in terms of race, religion, gender, regional and industry experience, cultural and geographical background, ethnicity, age and perspective.

Remuneration Committee

The Remuneration Committee was established on 23 August 2001 and is entrusted with the role of reviewing and recommending the annual bonus and salary increment of the Executive Directors and members of the Senior Management of the Company. Executive Directors' remuneration is decided by the Board with the Directors concerned abstaining from deliberations and voting accordingly.

Remuneration Policy

The remuneration of the Executive Director shall be reviewed by the Remuneration Committee and for their recommendation to the Board for approval.

Executive Director shall also be entitled to other benefits provided to employee of the Company and other additional benefits if so proposed by the Remuneration Committee for their consideration and recommendation to the Board for approval.

Non-Executive Directors' remuneration is based on a standard fixed fee and meeting allowance, with the Chairman receiving higher amount in recognition of his additional responsibilities. An additional fee is also paid to Non-Executive Directors sitting on Board Committees.
